1. PURPOSE

1.1. This policy establishes the safeguards used at The High School to protect personal information, as well as the procedures used to regulate the manner that such information is processed.

2. SCOPE

2.1. This policy applies to all academic staff, learners and stakeholders involved with The High School.

3. POLICY STATEMENT AND PRINCIPLES

3.1. Where we refer to “process”, it means how we collect, use, store, make available, destroy, update, disclose, or otherwise deal with your personal information.

3.2. As a general rule we will only process your personal information if this is required to deliver or offer a service, provide a product or carry out a transaction.

3.3. We may combine your personal information and use the combined personal information for any of the purposes stated in this Privacy Policy.

3.4. In this document any reference to “we” or “us” or “our” includes The High School and any of its subsidiaries or our membership as part of a group of companies.

3.5. If you use our services, goods, products, and service channels you agree that we may process your personal information as explained under this Privacy Policy. Sometimes you may provide us with consent to process your personal information. Read it carefully because it may limit your rights.

3.6. As a national organisation this Privacy Policy will apply to the processing of personal information by any member of The High School nationally. If we process personal information for another party under a contract or a mandate, the other party’s privacy policy will apply to the processing.

3.7. We can change this Privacy Policy from time to time if the law or its business practices requires it.

3.8. The version of the Privacy Policy displayed on our website will apply to your interactions with us.

11. UNDER WHAT CIRCUMSTANCES WILL WE TRANSFER YOUR INFORMATION TO OTHER COUNTRIES?

We will only transfer your personal information to third parties in another country in any one or more of the following circumstances:

- 11.1. where your personal information will be adequately protected under the other country's laws or an agreement with the third-party recipient.
- 11.2. where the transfer is necessary to enter into or perform under a contract with you, or a contract with a third party that is in your interest.
- 11.3. where you have consented to the transfer; and/or
- 11.4. where it is not reasonably practical to obtain your consent, the transfer is in your interest.
- 11.5. This transfer will happen within the requirements and safeguards of the law. Where possible, the party processing your personal information in the other country will agree to apply the same level of protection as available by law in your country or if the other country's laws provide better protection the other country's laws would be agreed to and applied.

12. YOUR DUTIES AND RIGHTS ABOUT THE PERSONAL INFORMATION WE HAVE ABOUT YOU.

- 12.1. You must provide proof of identity when enforcing the rights below.
- 12.2. You must inform us when your personal information changes.
- 12.3. Please refer to our Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000 Manual (PAIA Manual) for further information on how you can give effect to the rights listed below.
- 12.4. You have the right to request access to the personal information we have about you by contacting us. This includes requesting:
 - 12.4.1. confirmation that we hold your personal information.
 - 12.4.2. copy or description of the record containing your personal information; and
 - 12.4.3. the identity or categories of third parties who have had access to your personal information.

12.5. We will attend to requests for access to personal information within a reasonable time. You may be required to pay a reasonable fee to receive copies or descriptions of records, or information about third parties. We will inform you of the fee before attending to your request.

12.6. Please note that the law may limit your right to access information.

12.7. You have the right to request us to correct or delete the personal information we have about you if it is inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading, obtained unlawfully or we are no longer authorised to keep it. You must inform us of your request in writing. Please refer to our PAIA Manual for further information in this regard, it provides details on the process you should follow to give effect to this right. It may take up to 15 business days for the change to reflect on our systems. We may request documents from you to verify the change in personal information.

12.8. A specific agreement that you have entered into with us may determine how you must change your personal information provided at the time when you entered into the specific agreement. Please adhere to these requirements. If the law requires us to keep the personal information, it will not be deleted upon your request.

12.9. The deletion of certain personal information may lead to the termination of your business relationship with us.

12.10. You may object on reasonable grounds to the processing of your personal information.

12.11. We will not be able to give effect to your objection if the processing of your personal information was and is permitted by law; you have provided consent to the processing and our processing done according to your consent or the processing is necessary to conclude or perform under a contract with you.

12.12. Where you have provided your consent for the processing of your personal information, you may withdraw your consent. If you withdraw your consent, we will explain the consequences to you. We may proceed to process your personal information even if you have withdrawn your consent if the law permits or requires it. It may take up to 15 business days for the change to reflect on our systems, during this time we may still process your personal information. You must inform us of any objection in writing. Please refer to our PAIA Manual for further information in this regard, like the process you should follow to give effect to this right.

12.13. You have a right to file a complaint with us or any Regulator with jurisdiction about an alleged contravention of the protection of your personal information by us. We will address your complaint as far as possible.

13. HOW WE SECURE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION
